It's All About Our Kids! - Capital Campaign

Thanks to some additional donations after our special event at the lovely home of Donna & Gordy Bjorg Jr, co-hosted by capital campaign co-chairs Rich Boyden and Hank Robinett, we've passed the $2,000,000 mark!

Randy Vail, husband to Board Member Terri Vail, drove to Arizona to pick up 2 new golf carts for Camp Killoqua. The carts are another step forward in preparing to serve an additional 4,000 youth each year.

We still have almost $176,000 to raise to reach our goal. Donations are more important than ever. Please consider contacts you have that might be interested in helping expand our ability to serve more youth.

Some naming opportunities are still available. You have the chance to add your name, the name of loved ones, family, business and/or organization to the living memories at Camp Killoqua. Availability includes donor wall, areas and rooms in buildings, entire buildings, and even roads and The Meadow.

Youth Reflections from Symbolgram Workshop

If discovering something about yourself while creating something you are proud of and want to share it with others is a good thing, then the Symbolgram workshop was a huge success. For the youth who attended, it was that and more.

By creating their own symbolgram, these youths got to describe who they are, what they like and what they want to be, as well as learn that colors and shapes can have their own meaning. Creating your own symbolgram is one of the unique requirements in the Adventure program

Not only did they earn beads in the Trail to Knowing Me and Creativity, they completed a requirement towards the Wood Gatherer Award.

Some of their Spark reflections included:

- "I liked drawing with symbols and think using them in the future would be cool" Evie
- "I like my symbolgram and would not change a thing. I would use symbols in the future as a way of getting to know myself more" Caitlyn
- "I liked looking at the different symbols and might use them to send a secret message." Maddie
- "I liked going to the workshop, would like to try using symbols for writing and if I could change anything about my symbolgram it would be to add more detail. Evelyn
- Both Ele' and Harmony liked drawing with symbols but didn't agree with the explanation/meaning of colors they chose.
