

Dear Parent or Guardian,

Welcome! We are pleased to serve you and your child in our After School Program.

This handbook is full of helpful details and information. Please keep this in an accessible place for reference throughout the year. Occasionally, we will make changes or add to the Parent Handbook as needed. In the event you cannot find information you need, we encourage you to visit our website at www.campfiresnoco.org or, call our office at (425)258-5437 or our camp office at(360) 652-6250.

Respectfully,

Kena Deal

Camp Fire Programs:

- Increase self-esteem, self-reliance, and the ability to make good decisions
- Promote environmental awareness
- Develop leadership
- Encourage healthy lifestyles
- Respect diversity
- Promote personal and social responsibility
- Inspire vision, commitment, and action

Program Philosophy

Outside of school time, students will have the opportunity to explore, challenge themselves, and try new things. In all of our programs, we encourage youth to step out of their comfort zones and find their own challenge. We also believe in giving youth a say in how they spend their time, letting them lead scheduling and planning whenever possible.

After School Program

Camp Fire After School Day Program gives K-5 graders the chance to try all kinds of fun activities in the out of doors, practice healthy lifestyle choices, have time for reading and enjoy new friendship.

Days and Hours of Operation

- Program hours for Regular school days are from 3:00 - 6:00 p.m. at English Crossing Elementary.
- Friday early release days are from 1:40 to 6:00pm at English Crossing Elementary with occasional trips to Camp (dates will be given)
- Full day off from school the hours run from 7:30 a.m. through 6 p.m. at Camp Killoqua.
- Half day hours will be from 12noon until 6 p.m. at Camp Killoqua.
- No Program Days
  - Camp Fire does not provide a program on the following days:
    - Thanksgiving break
    - Winter break
    - Memorial Day
- A calendar will be provided with details of hours and days of operation.

- Camp Fire will NOT provide program when schools close due to weather. If the school is closed, we are closed. Note: Local radio and television stations will announce if school is closed.

Attendance

For safety concerns, the registering parent/adult must sign their child in and out of the program daily.

On school days staff will initial child in after school on the sign in/out sheet in the binder.

Parents need to give a full signature with the time when picking up their child/children.

Please call the Camp Fire office at 425-258-5437 during regular office hours if the child will not be attending the program that day. You may also call the onsite phone if there is an emergency 425-404-1770 on-site cell number

Camp Fire releases children to the registering parent/adult or other persons designated on the registration form by the registering parent/adult. The registering parent/adult must provide written permission for a person other than those listed on the registration form to pick up their child. Camp Fire requires that person to show photo identification prior to the child's release. If an authorized or emergency contact appears to be under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol, Camp Fire staff will not release the child until another authorized adult assumes responsibility for the child.

Custody Arrangements

Camp Fire recognizes many families have unique custody arrangements. Specific court orders will be necessary in order for Camp Fire to deny access to any legal parent/adult. We encourage families to find solutions to custody issues without putting children and/or staff in a difficult position. When a difficult position presents itself, staff will discuss the issue with both parties to find a solution which minimizes the stress for the child.

Registration and Fee Payment Process

- Camp Fire accepts children into the After School program on first come, first serve basis. The registering parent/adult must register their child each year. Camp Fire holds the registering parent/adult responsible for all fees unless another adult notes in writing their responsibility for all or part of the monthly fees.
- Online registration is available on the Camp Fire website at <https://www.ultracamp.com/clientlogin.aspx?idCamp=652&campCode=cfs>
- Camp Fire emails statements on the 15th of each month if you have a balance. All fees are due by the 25th of the month. If a statement does not arrive, contact the Camp Fire

Office at (425) 258-5437. Failure to receive a statement does not relieve you of payment responsibility. Payments can be made online at on our After School Day Camp page under “Make Payment”, Payments can be made to staff on site or brought to or mailed to the address below:

Camp Fire Snohomish County
4312 Rucker Ave.

- Camp Fire accepts cash, checks, credit cards (VISA, Master Card, or Discover) and money orders. Please do not send cash through the mail.
- Camp Fire charges $10 in addition to any bank charges for NSF Checks.
- If payment arrangements need to be made, please contact Kena and work out a plan.

Fees for Program

Monthly program fee is $265. This is a steady monthly fee including months that have several full day programming (i.e. spring break).

*Family discount: The first child pays full fee; all other children to register receive a 5% discount.

*Military discount: 10% discount for active, reserve, or National Guard families.

Policy Changes

Camp Fire Snohomish County occasional makes changes in program policies. Families will receive notification of changes through the updated Program Handbook. When we must change a policy or substantially change program operations mid-year, we will notify families in writing.

Photographs

Occasionally Camp Fire takes pictures or videos of program activities for news releases, brochures, reports, etc. Pictures or photos are not used without parental permission as indicated on the registration form. If you need to modify this release, please notify your site director or the main office in writing.

Individual Needs

Camp Fire strives to include all youth in camp program. When working with a family whose child has a medical or behavioral condition, Camp Fire provides services to assess program’s capability of providing necessary accommodations. Camp Fire does not provide nursing care for children who become ill and/or have special needs which require medical attention.

Medication

Staff must have written permission to administer any medication such as an Epi-Pen and inhalers to a child. In order to administer medication, the registering parent/adult must provide the original prescription container, labeled with the child's name, the medical professional's name, the name of the drug, the date of issue and directions for administration. Camp Fire staff will not administer "home remedies" to children.

Meals and Snacks

The program offers a nutritious snack each afternoon. Children will help decide healthy snack options and staff will make sure options are balanced. Each snack will have two of the following four choices- fruit, vegetable, protein, or grain.

Example of snacks could be:

A cheese stick and whole grain crackers

Grapes and whole grain fish crackers

*During half day and full day programming please bring a sack lunch, we will still provide snack on these days.

Activities

Children have the opportunity to participate in the planning and decision making of the program. Group games, cooking, arts and crafts, sports, natural science, outdoor skills, and healthy lifestyle skills provide youth with a variety of developmentally appropriate activities.

Example of a weekly schedule:

3:15 to 3:30- check-in/ Free choice

3:30 to 3:50 – Snack

3:50 to 4:30 – Outside time

4:30 to 5:00- Homework/ Reading

5:00 to 6:00- Free Choice

Early release days when at school:

1:40 to 2:00- check-in/ Free Choice

2:00 to 3:00- Outside time

3:00 to 3:30- snack

3:30 to 4:30 – special activity

4:30 to 5:00- Homework/ Reading

5:00 to 6:00- Free Choice

Activity Planning

Camp Fire offers a variety of experiences and opportunities for children during their time in the program. While children are supervised at all times in our program, some activities require heightened supervision. If you have specific questions about activities your child is participating in and the supervision involved, please speak to the Site Director. Camp Fire provides a “challenge by choice” atmosphere where children have the opportunity to plan and engage in activities of their choosing. These activities could include planning the menu for making a healthy snack, playing games, craft projects, and a whole lot more!

Outdoor Time and Gear

Weather permitting, children go outside every day. On days that the program is at Camp Killoqua children must have weather appropriate clothing. Children must wear close toed shoes and socks each day they are at camp. There will be space provided at Camp Killoqua for children to leave extra layers, play clothes, rain boots, etc. Please label belongings. Camp Fire is not responsible for lost, damaged, stolen or forgotten personal belongings.

Special activities may allow toys into the program. Toys of violence are prohibited at all times. Camp Fire may restrict other personal belongings and toys from the site.

Animals in Program

At times, small pets may become a part of the program. Prior to pets visiting the site or becoming a part of the program, staff will check children’s medical information form to ensure all children in the program are free from reported allergies to the pet in question. In addition, when animals visit the program; all families will be given written notification of the upcoming animal visitor, therefore spontaneous visits from family pets are not allowed.

Clean-up

Children gain ownership of their environment through respecting their environment. Camp Fire expects children to participate in cleaning up.

Staff

Trained staff members supervise programs under the direction of the Site Director. A minimum ratio of one staff member to ten children (1:10) is maintained at all times. In addition to maintaining a 1:10 ratio, we will always have two trained staff on site. We have a current/ up to date Washington state school age childcare license. With this license we must comply to state standards and staff have numerous trainings to keep updated. Camp Killoqua is accredited by the American Camp Association (ACA), which means we voluntarily comply with more than 300 nationally recognized industry standards.

Site Director

A Site Director is responsible for the overall operation of the program. The Site Director can help families with any questions, concerns, comments or suggestions they may have. Parental input assists with providing a quality program.

Site Staff

Our highly trained staff, place an emphasis on a quality program for youth in a safe and healthy environment. The site staff maintains CPR and First-Aid Certifications. The number of staff follows a ratio of one staff member to every ten children. Volunteers may work with children occasionally but are not included in ratios.

Guidance, Discipline and Rules

Inappropriate Behavior

- Camp Fire does not tolerate: behavior that threatens the physical or emotional safety of self or others; destructive behavior; behavior that is of a habitual nature to the degree that is a detriment to the quality of the program or impedes other participants from engaging in the program to the full extent; or behavior that is of a sexual nature. Should a child display these behaviors, the Site Director will contact the registering parent/adult to arrange for a Behavior Contract meeting.
- If the child's behavior is out of control and/or harmful the Site Director may request immediate pick up. Inappropriate behavior may result in suspension or dismissal from program. Creation of a plan of action will occur before the child re-enters the program.
- Open communication and full cooperation is required from the registering parent/adult when conducting a plan of action.
- Follow up meetings will occur to monitor progress and/or concerns.
- Dismissal from the program may occur depending on the severity and frequency of the behavior.

No-Tolerance Policy

Camp Fire has a no-tolerance policy for physical violence, use of cigarettes, alcohol, controlled substances, sexual activity and firearms that places self, other children or staff at risk.

At no time is any person permitted to carry any type of firearm, ammunitions and/or weapon in Camp Fire programs for any reason unless they are law enforcement officers required to carry these weapons as part of their uniform/job and disclose this information to the Site Director and program staff. Violation of this policy will result in immediate dismissal from the program.

*Camp Killoqua is a substance –free space which includes drugs, alcohol and smoking. Parents, this includes vehicles on the property. Please finish your cigarettes before you get to camp.
