

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
March 19, 2025

Camp Fire Snohomish County Welcomes New Executive Director, Jeremy Gregersen

SNOHOMISH COUNTY, WA – March 19, 2025 – Camp Fire Snohomish County is excited to announce the appointment of Jeremy Gregersen as the organization's new Executive Director, effective March 17, 2025. Jeremy, a lifelong educator and passionate outdoorsman, brings a wealth of experience in nonprofit leadership, strategic planning, and fundraising to the role.

With over ten years of experience leading nonprofit organizations, Jeremy has demonstrated a deep commitment to community development and youth empowerment. His extensive background in fundraising and strategic planning will help further strengthen Camp Fire's mission to inspire and enable youth to reach their full potential through outdoor education and service opportunities.

"I am honored to join Camp Fire Snohomish County and to work with such a dedicated and passionate team," said Jeremy Gregersen. "The organization's commitment to empowering young people through outdoor education, leadership development, and community engagement aligns perfectly with my values, and I look forward to contributing to its continued success. I look forward to furthering the Camp Fire mission to provide young people with the opportunity to find their spark, lift their voice, and discover who they are."

Jeremy is no stranger to the mission of Camp Fire, having spent much of his life enjoying the outdoors and supporting programs that foster growth and self-confidence in youth. As Executive Director, he is excited to collaborate with the board, staff, volunteers, and supporters to ensure that Camp Fire remains a vital part of the Snohomish County community.

"We are thrilled to welcome Jeremy to our team," said Terrence Bedford, President of the Governing Board for Camp Fire Snohomish County. "His leadership, experience, and passion for outdoor education make him the ideal person to help guide our organization into the future. We look forward to the positive impact he will have on our programs and the young people we serve."

As the new Executive Director, Jeremy will focus on advancing Camp Fire's programs, furthering its mission, increasing community partnerships, and continuing to develop opportunities that enrich the lives of youth in Snohomish County.

For more information about Camp Fire Snohomish County and its programs, please visit campfiresnoco.org or contact Deputy Executive Director Pearl Verbon at pverbon@campfiresnoco.org.